ROCK CREEK ESTATES, Frederick, MD

This charming custom-built Cape Cod style home in Rock Creek Estates, constructed in 1985, showcases pride of ownership and offers a spacious layout. The main level features a welcoming foyer with a solid oak staircase, a large living room, and a formal dining room. The kitchen boasts rich cherry wood cabinets, granite countertops, and stainless-steel appliances, along with ample table space. The family room, measuring 22'-5" x 12'-3", includes a woodstove flue and a brick hearth. A standout feature is the Pella solarium, filled with natural light from its multiple windows and skylights, perfect for indoor gardening. The main level also includes a bedroom with two closets and a connecting bathroom with a shower. Hardwood floors extend throughout most of the main level. Upstairs, you'll find three additional bedrooms, two full bathrooms, and a huge walk-in attic for storage. A small office adds practicality. The basement offers a spacious recreation room and an unfinished utility room. The home is heated with natural gas and features central air conditioning. The oversized garage is 22' x 24'. Conveniently located near Historic Downtown Frederick, shopping, and highways, this home is a must-see!
